LEGENDARY NORTH DAKOTA

In 2023, a fresh visitors guide will provide inspiration to explore the attractions of North Dakota – all the state’s legendary historic, cultural, adventurous, cityside, agricultural, fun and natural highlights with awe-inspiring photographs.

If it’s an outdoor adventure visitors seek, they’ll discover plenty of opportunities in North Dakota. National and state parks, scenic drives, golfing, hiking, biking, water adventures, birding, rodeos and winter activities all await visitors, and the North Dakota Travel Guide will help them find the next adventure.

The traditions of our culture and heritage come alive year-round. From our largest cities to our smaller towns, visitors are certain to discover an event or museum that can’t be missed.

Visitors will find information in the 2023 guide about North Dakota’s must-sees, main streets and why this is the perfect time to be legendary in North Dakota. Plus, each page will have a call-to-action directing potential visitors to North Dakota where they can learn more and plan trips.

Sara Otte Coleman
Director of North Dakota
Department of Commerce
Tourism Division

“The latest research on visitor guides shows that travelers who use them spend more and stay longer in destinations, making advertising in guides an investment that pays you back. In North Dakota, our travel and tourism industry is one that’s vital to local economies and also opens the door for potential new residents and workforce. As we continue on the road to recovery, your presence in the Travel Guide is one that shows you are open for business.”
